

Canaccord Capital. Interview Script

Your experience and background

What markets do you follow?

What do you think is currently driving this bull commodities market, and when do you see it stopping?

Where do you see gold and oil going?

What percentage of their portfolio do you think a prudent person should put into commodities and precious metals?

What do you look for in a junior company?

Apart from stocks, what other investment vehicles are you currently keen on?

Are there any areas that you think investors have overlooked in this current market?

What does an investor get by working with Canaccord?

Do you accept US clients and orders?

How can they get in touch with you?